

Series: "The Greatest Songs of All Time"
Today: "Good and Pleasant" - Psalm 133

1. Psalms 120-134 are called Songs of Ascent, probably because:
 - a. Jews would sing them as they went up (ascended) to Jerusalem for the 3 feasts each year.
 - b. The tone of their music goes up.
 - c. The Jews would sing them as they climbed ladders to the second floor of houses.

2. The theme of the psalm is that it is _____ and _____ for brothers to live together in unity. (1)

3. What do we want to create in Florida Coast Church?
 - a. A place where people gather on Sundays only.
 - b. A community of love and support.
 - c. A great online community where people can post pictures.

4. In the Old Testament, the Jews became more and more diverse in their languages and cultures, and Christians are even more diverse and are now in every _____.

5. What did Christ accomplish for those who believe in him?
 - a. He took away our sin to bring us back to God.
 - b. He united us to other believers in one body, the church.
 - c. both a and b

6. A simile is a comparison between two things using the word like or as. This poem says that brothers living in unity are like: (2-3)
 - a. olive oil and ocean breezes.
 - b. honey and flowers.
 - c. oil on Aaron the high priest and dew on the mountains

7. Where there is unity among brothers and sisters, there is also the blessing of eternal _____. (3)

8. Do we get eternal life by going up to God or by him coming down to us?