

Family Sermon Sheet – I Thessalonians 4:13-5:11
“Either Way It Will Be Okay”

1. This section says:
When Christ comes again, Christians who have _____ will be fine (4:13-18).
When Christ comes again, Christians who are _____ will be fine (5:1-11).
2. What does verse 4:13 teach?
 - a. Christians and non-Christians grieve in the same way after someone dies.
 - b. Christians should not grieve at all after someone dies.
 - c. Christians grieve after someone dies but with hope.
3. When Christ comes again, who will be with him first, those who have already died or those who are still alive? (verses 4:14-16)
4. When Christ comes again, will it be quiet and secret or noisy and public? (verse 4:16)
5. Christians who are alive at that time will go up to _____ the Lord on his return to earth (verse 4:17).
6. Is it possible to predict when Jesus will return? (verses 5:1-2)
7. If Christ comes like a thief in the night, should Christians be afraid? (verses 5:3-5)
 - a. No, because it will be a good thing for everyone.
 - b. No, because we do not live in the darkness or the night.
 - c. No, because we know he is not coming back soon.
8. If we are not people of the night or the darkness but of the day and the light, how should we live? (verses 5:6-8)
 - a. How we live doesn't really matter.
 - b. We should live in the light, being alert, attentive, self-controlled, prepared, practicing faith, love, and hope.
 - c. We can practice the deeds of darkness even though we are of the light.
9. What did Jesus do so that we can have salvation and life with him? (verses 5:9-10)
10. What should we do with this teaching? (verses 4:18 and 5:11)
